

Privacy Policy

The Kenmore Districts Rugby Club (KDRC and referred to as the “Club”) respects the privacy of the individuals on whom the Club collects, uses, discloses and holds personal information. KDRC’s Privacy Policy is based on the National Privacy Policy Principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Commonwealth) and on the Privacy Policy of the Australian Rugby Union (ARU).

The KDRC uses the information it collects to administer the game of Rugby Union in its immediate community and where relevant rugby communities throughout Australia and overseas, to provide Rugby activities and Rugby-related services, to register, select and insure participants, and to assess the level of interest in the sport.

The KDRC also uses your information to provide information, materials and promotions relating to Rugby Union which the Club considers may interest you. Where you consent, we may also disclose that information to other Rugby clubs or our affiliates (to enable them to provide Rugby activities and Rugby-related services, and administer the sport in their area), to our sponsors (to enable them to provide information, materials and promotional opportunities) and to certain other third parties.

In some circumstances, you may be entitled to gain access to the information the KDRC holds about you. If you wish to do so, please contact the Club President in writing at the address below:
